

The Biggest Bird

-written and illustrated by Goh Huaguo, Uno(6 years 4 months)

Once upon a time, there was a bird called Black Dot. He was the smallest bird in the world. He was very sad. He wanted to be the biggest bird. But how?

He asked the pigeon, "How can I be the biggest bird?"
"You can ask the parrot. He knows Everything," said the Pigeon.

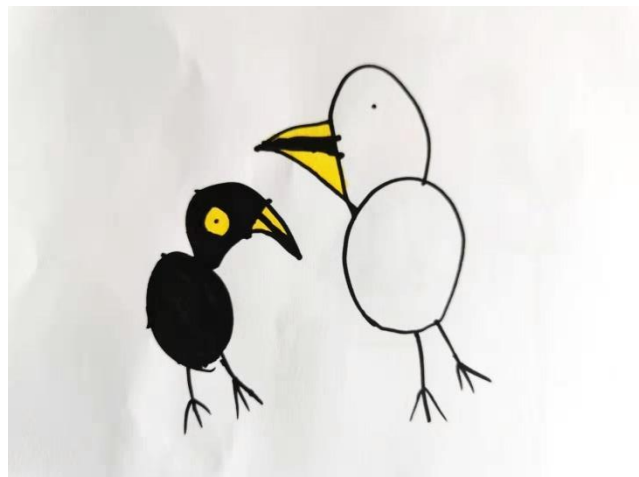

"I know everything BUT that. You can ask the goose. He is a big bird," said the parrot.

But the goose didn't know, either.

"Crowned crane is the biggest bird in the world. You can ask him," said the goose.

The crowned crane lived in Africa. Black Dot flew a long way to see him. "I am not the biggest. Ostrich is the biggest bird in the world. He can tell you," said the crowned crane.

The ostrich lived very far far away in the desert. Black Dot finally found him.

“Please tell me how to be the Biggest bird.”

“To grow big, you have to finish your food every meal. Remember to eat a lot of vegetables.” said the ostrich, “but I don’t like being big. I want to be small, like you. I want to fly.”

Black Dot went back home. He lived happily every after.
